SUBJECT: DR. DOMINGUEZ CAMPORA TO CALL ON PRESIDENT EISENHOWER.

Dr. DOMINGUEZ Campora, who is heading the Uruguayan delegation to the UN General Assembly, told me that he has been "instructed by his government" to visit Washington for the purpose of paying his respects to President EISENHOWER during his sojourn in the United States. He said the visit probably will not take place for some weeks yet.

Because of his long residence in Washington as Ambassador, Dominguez Campora is generally believed by the Uruguayan government to have unusual persuasive powers where the US government is concerned. His proposed visit to Washington recalled recent reports that Uruguay might ask the United States to act as friendly mediator in its troubled relations with Argentina (see Embassy's despatch No. 134, September 8, 1953). The Embassy will check with the Foreign Office before Dr. Dominguez Campora goes to Washington for more information.
